This is a four part bridge building series. The stats on mental illness are staggering, showing us just how pervasive it is-afflicting every single population group. Yet silence, stigma, and ignorance still run deep. Many in your community know someone who's struggling, but find it hard to grasp what that person is going through and have no ideas how to even begin to help.

Join host Alex Rodriguez on a journey for understanding, answers, and HOPE. You'll meet men and women who have struggled with depression, anxiety, and other common mental conditions-and the skilled practitioners whose therapeutic methods are helping these same people find encouraging breakthroughs.

Looking ahead- church social March 17- Annual Pancake Breakfast.
